CARR'S PLURALITY.

EARLY 19,000 OVER MAYNARD. A LEPUBLICAN GAIN OF NEARLY 6,000-THE LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN BY 24 MAJORITY. Further returns from this State increase Carr's plurality over Maynard (Dem.), for Secretary to 18,681, a gain of nearly 6,000 over his plurality in 1881. The reports on the vote for the other State candidates, which are still far from perfect, indicate Democratic pluralities ranging from 11,560 for O'Brien, to 18,893 for Chapin. The Republican majority in the State Senate is 6 and in the House 18.

THE VOTE BY COUNTIES.

CARR'S PLURALITY NEARLY 19,000, A REPUBLICAN GAIN OF ABOUT 6,000.

The latest returns from the State give Carr (Rep.) a plurality of 18,681 over Maynard (Dem.) for Secretary of State. The returns on the rest State ticket are more complete than they were yesterday, but they are still far from being as full and accurate as those for Secretary of State. Estimating the counties to be heard from and the missing election districts in this city the apparent Democratic pluralities are as follows: Chapin, for Controller, 18,893; Maxwell, for Treasurer, 17,575; O'Brien, for Attorney-General, 11,560; Sweet, for State Engineer, 16,389, Complete returns will probably change these figures considerably. In the table below the votes or pluralities in each county are compared with the official votes in 1881 and 1882. These figures show that Carr has increased his plurality of 1881 by nearly 6,000 votes, while Chapin's plurality is 173,061, behind that of Cleveland in 1882.

THE ELECTIONS IN OTHER STATES.

THE DEFEAT OF BUTLER.

MUCH BETTING ON THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION-

ROBINGON'S PLURALITY. IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. Boston, Nov. 8 .- Never before in the history of Massachusetts has there been so much betting on an election as this year. People who ordinarily are far removed from the betting fraternity, quiet, steady-going plodders, mechanics, milkmen, clerks, professional men, women, in fact all classes, except, perhaps, clergyman, bet not only hats, clothes, suppers and wines, but also For the first four weeks of the campaign it was not difficult to find Butler men who were willing and eager to bet even on the Governor's re-election. Later they were a little more guarded, and demanded odds, and finally a few days before election it was difficult to get a Butler man to bet. The craze was so great that men risked their all on the result. A milkman in Stoneham was an admirer of Butler. He gained his livlihood by his milk Cotonel French's predictions last year proved correct and Butler was elected. This year French made the same prediction and the poor milkman staked his all, mortgaging his route, and to-day does not own a dollar. Residents of Lynn in several cases mortgaged their houses, others took their little savings from the bank and lost it on Butler. Three men at the Highlands lost it on Butler. Three men at the Highlands mortgaged their houses and furniture to raise money to gamble with and lost it; so it was all over the State. This fact will have an effect on Butler's chances for an election should be come up as a candidate next year as many believe he will. Men who lost money on him this year will not be likely to vote for him next year. The Herald states that Governor Butler told a member of his council yesterday that he should run again for the office of Governor next fall. The compliment of 150,000 votes leads him to think he will be successful. Yhe discoveries of errors in the election returns from Taunton and Canton increase Robinson's plurality to 10,101. The vote, with Gosmold still unheard from, stands: Robinson, 160,175: Butler, 150,074; Almy, 1,553; scattering 80; total, 311,882.

PARTY SPOILS IN NEW-JERSEY.

GOVERNOR-ELECT ABBETT'S PATRONA GE-CONTEST FOR THE SPEAKERSHIP. TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 8 .- The election result in New-Jersey amounts to a change in Democratic Governors. Mr. Ludlow departs next January with a fair record, and Mr. Abbett steps into his shoes with a bad record. The Abbett plurality over Dixon is estimated at 6,700. The Prohibition vote was probably about 1,000. The election of Senators Cranmer, of Ocean; Gardner, of Atlantic, and Nichols, of (Imberland, was unexpected by Governor Abbett during dis term will have the appoin ment of a private secretary, a Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, three Judges of the Court of Errors and Appeals in place of Cole, Green and Kirk, of a Clerk in Changery, a Railroad Tax Commissioner, Chief Labor Inspector, and Prosecutors of the Pleas in Passaic, Camden, tercer, Cumberland, Gloucester, Burlington, Salem, Ber gen, Union and Warren counties, together with several loss of two prominent State offices to the Republicans, the State Treasurership and the Controllership, both of which have been ably filled by Republicans for several years. The term of E.J. Anderson, Controller, expired last winter, but owing to the failure of the Senate to go into joint meeting, he held over. The Democratic monmose was then, Alderman James F. Connelly, of Newark, and he will probably be renominated this year. A leading candidate for State Treasurer is Andrew Jackson Smith, who was Mr. Connelly's opponent for the Controllership last year, and a "deal" is said to have been made, for mutual

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8 .- Official returns from six counties, partial returns and estimates from fifty counties, and estimates based upon the election of two years ago from the remaining ten counties, give Hubbard 14,000 majority and the rest of the Republican ticket about 17,000 majority.

THE DEFEAT OF THE READJUSTERS.

MAHONE'S POOR MANAGEMENT OF THE VIRGINIA CAMPAIGN. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- In speaking to-night of the causes which contributed to the anti-Bourbon defeat in Virginia, a resident of that State, who is a careful political observer, said : "In the first place the Bourbons were well organized, and the business management of their canvass was in the hands of one of the ablest and shrewdest business men in the State. In the second place the Bourbons had all the money they needed and they poured it out like water in the close districts. They secured some colored votes by purchase, but what helped them most as to votes was the 'race issue,' for the raising of which I think they are indebted to Mahone, that brought them large accessions from the ranks of the white Readjusters. "Besides, Senator Mahone was guilty of gross misman-agement in several respects. He seemed to have forgotten that what brought thousands of white voters to his support two years ago-most of them young and carnest men-was their resentment on account of the domineering spirit of the old Democratic leaders, and that he could not expect them to submit to a single tyrant after they had thrown off the old yoke. His arbitrary methods offended hundreds of his followers and alienated thousands of them. When Governor Cameron at last took the stump he made some injudicious speeches. Some things he said did the liberals great harm. Not only that, but he was absent from Richmond on a stumpng tour during the holding of the State fair, when thou ands of farmers from all parts of Virginia visited the city. At the State House the only person they found to represent the Governor of the Commonwealth was his messenger, an overbearing colored man. Those old farmers went back to their homes and told what they had seen, and they became so many Bourbon missionaries from that

"Is it a reverse or an irretreivable disaster?"

"Well, I think it is a very serious reverse. It will put back for along time—perhaps for years—the liberalizing of polities in the South for which we have been koping. I think it makes Virginia surely Democrate in the next Presidential election, and its effects will strengthen the Democrats in other Southern States. Senator Riddleberger will probably be found voting oftener with the Democrats than with the Republicans next winter, and I should not be at all surprised to see him acting uniformly with the Democrats. There are runors that his inaction during the recent campaign was in pursuance of an under, standing between the Brocklyn leaders and himself-the made only two or three speeches and ho had himself int rviewed once or twice apparently in order that he might find an opportunity to publish emphatic declarations that he was 'n Democrat through and through.' The young Senator will find the vay easy enough, and se he has a full term in the Senate before him the Kourbons would probably be willing to smooth his pathway into the Democrate party."

VIRGINIA'S LEGISLATURE.

RICHMOND, Nov. 8 .- As the returns continue to come in the Democratic gains increase. Reports from all the Senatorial districts except two give the Democrate 23 Senators and the Coalitionists 15.

The two districts not fully reported are the 11d, com-posed of the countles of Scott, Lee and Wise, and the posed of the counties of Scott, Lee and Wise, and the Vitth, composed of Carroll, Grayson and Floyd counties. Fragmentary returns from both of these districts show heavy Democratic gains, which, if continued at points not yet heard from, will give one or both to the Democrats. In the House the Democrats have thus far secured 63 members and the Coalitionists thirty-three. Of the four remaining delegates the Democrats have one certainly, which will make their majority in the House twenty-eight, and on joint ballot not less than thirty-live. The popular majority in the State is likely, to reach 30,000.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICAN.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8 .- Official returns from fifty-seven of the sixty-seven counties of this State and estimates from the others gives Niles (Rep.), for Auditor-General, 16,261 majority, and Linsey (Rep.), for State Treasurer, 17,501 majority. This varies very little from the figures sent out on Tuesday night.

NEBRASKA'S REPUBLICAN MAJORITY. OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 8.—The revised returns conform the previous estimate that Reese (Rep.), for Supreme Judge, is elected by 5,000 majority.

THE RESULT IN MISSISSIPPI.

Liceson Miss. Nov. 8 - The election re turns are nearly all in. The joint Legislature will stand 130 Democrats to 25 Republicans and Independents. The Democrats elected eleven out of twelve District-Attorneys. The disturbance in Copiah County is the only one reported in the State on election day.

SENATORIAL CANDIDATES IN OHIO.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] CLEVELAND, Nov. 8 .- The results of the elections in New-York and other Eastern States have inspired the friends of Henry B. Payne with renewed confidence. They claim to-day that it is now a settled fact that no Eastern Democrat will be nominated for the Presidency, and that either Thurman or Payne will be the candidate The friends of Thurman claim that by giving Payne the Senatorship, Thurman will have easy salling for the Presidential nomination, while Payne's friends say that Payne and Hoadley would make a suitable Presidential ticket, with Thurman for the Senate. The laik of Payne for President is certainly helping his chances for the Senate.

THE FISKE WILL CASE.

TESTIMONY AS TO THE VALUE OF CORNELL UNI-VERSITY'S PROPERTY.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The hearing in the Fiske will case was resumed to-day. E. L. Williams, acting treasurer of the university, testified in substance as follows: "I have been acting treasurer four years; in August, 1881, just before Jennia McGraw Fiske died, the value of securities held by the university amounted to $576,000, exclusive of money in the bands of the controller; some of the securities were at a premium. The income from invested funds October 1, 1881, wa $126,807 66; from Western lands before August 1, 1881, $65,000; and since then $554,382. The cost of university buildings was $605,000; the books, pictures, etc., in the library, $88,780 the books, pictures, etc., in the library, $88,780; for the collections in all the departments, $121,928.07; furniture, $23,699.25; tools, $537,10." The case was adjourned until to-morrow morning, when the testimony of Treasurer Williams will be resumed. The present aim of the McGraw and Fiske heirs is to show that at the time of the testartix's death Cornell University was unable, by reason of a clause in its charter, and its possession of property valued at more than $3,000,000, to inherit what Mrs. Fiske bequeathed. President White will probably be the next witness. The taking of testimony promises to be a long and tedious process. Frequent sureastic remarks were exchanged by the counsel to-day, but the bost of feeling apparently existed between the university authorities and contestants and the respective attorneys.

A MUSICAL FESTIVAL AT BUFFALO.

PREPARATIONS FOR ONE NEXT MAY-NEGOTIATIONS IN NEW-YORK.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] BUFFALO, Nov 8 .- The prospects for a May musical festival in this city are bright. The organizing committee of fifteen had a meeting to-night, at which Joseph Mischka and Johann Gelbke, who recently went to New-York to consult with leading musicians, submitted their report. They had conversed with both Theodore Thomas and Dr. Damrosch, and obtained the terms on which each would act as director-in-chief of the festival. No matter which of the two is engaged, he will bring his full orchestra and take the entire responsibility for the artistic successrof the festival. Both leaders were enthusiastic over the project, and ciaimed that with the advantages Buffalo possessed she could support an annual festival as well as Cincinnati. The committee also looked after solo artists, and from their in-vestigations conclude that an expense of nearly $20,000 will have to be incurred for engagements. Alrendy be-tween thirty and forty representative citizens have signified their willingness to subscribe to a guarantee fund, as soon as the project takes definite shape. The subject is daily growing in interest, and a few weeks hence Buffalo will witness great popular enthusiasm over the scheme.

"Abe" Buzzard, the notorious leader of the Welsh Monntain sang, shot E. F. Bard, of Lincoin, one of the searching party, and was nimedif wounded, but escaped. Bard was shot in the face and arm, two teeth were knocked out, and one shot entered under the chin. His wounds are dangerous. Bome stolen articles were recovered. The people are organizing for another fight in the morning. It is believed that Frankford, the notorious jail broaker, is with the robbers.

THE FILLMORE WILL CONTEST.

WITNESSES WHO SAW NOTHING IRRATIONAL IN THE CONDUCT OF THE DECEDENT.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Buffalo, Nov. 8.—The Fillmore will contest was resumed this morning. Several witnesses were called by Mr. Marshall to prove the sanity of Mrs. Fillmore. Dr. Henry Foster, of this city, testified that he had been called to see Mrs. Fillmore, and had always treated her as a same person. Albert Smith, of New-York, who was at Clifton Springs in 1877, when Mrs. Fillmore was an inmate of that sanitarium, testified to her conduct while there. After she left Clifton and came to Buffalo, Mr. Smith visited her in this city. He was frequently at her house, and observed Mrs. Fillmore's conduct and conversation toward her servants. He thought that she was rational. A number of letters from Mrs. Fillmore to the witness and his wife were offered and put in evidence. They bere date from December, 1877, to October, 1880. The letters were of a social her, 1877, to October, 1880. The letters were of a social character relating to the strong friendship existing between the writer and Mr. and Mrs. Smith. They were written in a gushing style, and would indicate that Mrs. Filimore had a strong affection for her friends.

This afternoon Mrs. Alitha Standin, who lived with Mrs. Fillmore as a companion from December, 1877, to May, 1878; testified. During that time Miss Standin did not notice anything irrational in Mrs. Fillmore's conduct toward her servants. The witness rode out with Mrs. Fillmore and was with her constantly. She never heard her swear at her servants.

more and was with her constantly. She never heard her sevants.

L. G. Sellstedt, an artist, testified that he painted Mrs. Fillmore's picture in 1859. He was impressed with her obstinate ways, but did not consider them extraordinary. She was particular as to how the picture should be placed upon cauvass. He objected and said that he could not paint a good picture. This did not make any difference to her. She was nervous and irritable. The witness continued his acquaintance with the Fillmore family until Mrs. Fillmore's death. He saw her once amonth. On two occasions she took dinner at his house. Both times she talked of being lonely with only servants for company. The witness never saw anything irrational in her conduct.

PHILOSOPHY AT PRINCETON COLLEGE.

ENDOWMENT AND ORGANIZATION OF THE NEW DE PARTMENT.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] PRINCETON, Nov. 8 .- The semi-annual meetng of the Board of Trustees of the College of New-Jersey was held here to-day. Dr. McCosh reported in behalf of the Faculty. The president also announced that Mrs. Robert L. Stuart, of New-York, had given to the college $150,000 for the purpose of placing the Department of Philosophy on a working basis. This money was given in nemory of her late husband and his brother, Alexander Stuart. The chair of jurisprudence and political ecohomy, vacant since the death of Dr. Atwater, was filled by the election of Alexander Johnston. This gentleman is a lawyer and the author of "American Politics," which has had a circulation of 8,000 copies during the last three

A THRESHING MACHINE EXPLODES.

GREAT DEVASTATION WROUGHT-THREE PERSONS SEVERELY INJURED.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 8 .- The details of a terrible explosion near Canal Dover, Ohio, reached here this after noon. Leon Lintner's threshing machine exploded a o'clock this morning, ten minutes after it was started on Catherine Geottge's farm, badly injuring John Smith, the engineer, Peter Lintner and Mrs. Geottge. The latter will probably not recover. Jacob Bair, Frederic Geottge, Renkert, Willoughby Bair and Harmon Kline were blackened and covered with debris, but not severely njured. The ground was swept by the escaping steam as by a cyclone. The sides of the adjoining house were crushed in, fences demolished and a large barn and its

A LESS NUMBER OF LAW STUDENTS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] TRENTON, Nov. 8 .- Only twelve applicants for admission to the bar appeared before the Supreme Court examiners to-day. This is a smaller number than at any time since the passage, in 1882, of the law by which the requirements of three years' study in a lawyer's office before application was repealed.

MISS HILL AND SENATOR SHARON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8 .- Agnes Hill, who is sulng Senator Sharon for divorce and a division of property, refused in court this morning to produce the alleged arriage contract until informed by the Judge that if she did not it would be ruled out as evidence and only regarded as waste paper. She then produced it. Senator Sharon, after seeing it, denounced it as a forgery in such indignant terms that the Judge ordered him to be removed from the court. Tricon, the French agent in China, throws the blame for the misstatement in his dispatch to M. Ferry, about the Marquis Tseng's course on the Tonquin matter, upon the interpreter, who rendered a statement that Li Hung Chang disapproved Marquis Tseng's actions as a disavowal thereof.

TRUNK LINE PRESIDENTS. AGREEING TO CARRY OUT CONTRACTS.

SETTLEMENT ORDERED, BUT MANY QUESTIONS OPEN-ADVANCE IN FREIGHT RATES. The meeting of the committee of trunk line presidents, called a week ago, was held at Commissioner Fink's office yesterday. H. J. Jewett, president of the New-York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad, presided as chairman. J. H. Rutter, president of the New-York Central, was present, the Pennsylvania Haliroad being represented by Vice-President Frank Thomson, the Baltimore and Ohio by Vice-President Samuel Spencer, and the Grand Trunk of Canada by General Manager Joseph Hickson. Before the meeting was over Mr. Jewett had to leave the place because he was not feeling well, and in the subsequent discussions the managers of the Chicago connections of the trunk lines were present. Among the officers present were Vice-President Blanchard and Traffic Manager Vilas, of the Erie, Vice-President Hayden, of the New-York Central, Traffic Manager, Seargeaut, of the Grand Trunk, President John Newell, of the Lake Shore, President Ledyard, of the Michigan Central, John sylvania Company, and General Freight Agent Harriott, of the Baltimore and Ohio. There was a warm discussion of the railroad situation by the presidents' committee. The charges of cutting of freight rates brought against the Eric were considered, and all the evidence secured by its opponents was laid be-fore the meeting. Before the production of the proofs had led to a feeling which might have terrupted the proceedings, the subject was laid aside for the purpose of taking up the main question at issue. This was, whether or not the trunk line east-bound pool question should be carried out. The contract provides for a money settlement between the roads on the basis of the percentages awarded by Commissioner Fink, the settle ment to be subsequently revised, if rendered necessary by the awards of the arbitrators to which the roads have appealed. Since early last spring the Eric has been carrying east-bound freight largely in excess of its percentage, and the Pennsylvania Railroad also is ahead of its allotment. The heavy loss which the New-York Central has suffered has been occasioned, it is claimed, by the cutting of rates by the Eric and the Grand Trunk. After the repeated failures of past meetings to secure the maintenance of rates the New-York Central insisted upon the turning over of Erie's surplus in accordance with the contract. The Pennsylvania, while ahead itself, has supported the Central for the purpose of gaining its support on the dressed heats

It was voted yesterday that the contract be carried out, settlements of all balances to be made at once. Commissioner Fink possesses the authority to make drafts upon the roads which are ahead, for the purpose of making upon the roads which are ahead, for the purpose of making payments to those which are behindhand on the percentages. After this action, west-bound pool matters were discussed, but no definite conclusion was reached. Under this pool Mr. Fink has authority to divert tonnage from one road to another when the equalization of the actual tradie with the pool percentages requires it. He has never exercised this authority, and the New-York Central is now ahead of its allotted percentage. It is probable that when this question is pressed to an issue its settlement will be complicated by charges of rate-outling and sugrestions of a change in percentages before an adjustment of balances is made. It was suggested yesterday that the action of the President's Committee in regard to the east-bound pool settlement did not include the basis on which the differences in tonnage should be calculated. The contract provides for a settlement on the basis of gross revenue, but before the action of the committee is carried out it is probable that the roads which have exceeded their percentages will demand that they pay over only the net revenue on the excess.

mand that they pay over only the net revenue on the excess.

There was a long consideration of the question of what differences should be allowed between the rates on live stock and on dressed meats. The Fennsylvania and the New-York Central assert that the present differences favor the dressed-meat shipper. After taking much testimony Commissioner Fink recommended a large increase in the rate on dressed meats. The Frie and the Grand Trunk roads bitterly oppose this decision, as they are specially developing the traffic in dressed meats in opposition to the shipments of live stock over their compettors. No agreement could be reached/yesterday on this subject, and the present rates remain. The Grand Trunk refused to submit the matter to arbitration and a proposition to make an experimental test of the course of traffic under air. Fink's recommendations was rejected.

An important result of the meeting was the adoption of an agreement by all the roads, including the Grand Trunk, that if the Delaware, Luckawanns, and Western Rallroad continued to cut rates the pool lines should refuse to make through rates or onlie of ladding with it, exchange through cars, or in any way maintain through connections. This agreement is not to be enforced unless to cut rates the pool lines should refuse to make through rates or bills of lading with it, exchange through cars, or in any way maintain through connections. This agreement is not to be enforced unless the Lackawanna refuses to maintain pool rates. The time allowed before the agreement shall be put into force, however, is understood to be less than two months.

The contract for the new Chicago cast-bound treight pool was signed yesterday. It dates from July 1 and is to run for five years. It includes a provision, however, that it may be terminated on two months notice by any road. The settlement of balances under the old contract up to July 1 has been agreed to be made on net revenue. The settlements thereafter are to be made on pross revenue. The old settlement has been delayed pending an agreement on the new contract, to which the Chicago and Atlantic and the "Nickel Plate"—the new roads—are parties.

The conference voted also to advance east-bound freight rates on November 26, 5 cents per 100 pounds, on the basis of 30 cents on grain from Chicago to New-York. A meeting of the Chicago committee will be held to-day to consider detail matters.

MISSOURI RIVER ROADS DISAGREE. CHICAGO, Nov. 8 .- A few days ago Commissioner Midgley, of the Missouri River roads, appointed a committee of seven to prepare a schedule of differential rates on lumber from northwestern points to points on the Missouri River, with the understanding that if the committee was unable to make a satisfactory report the committee would be referred to Arbitrator Bogue for adjust, ment. It now is made known that the Chicago, Milwankee and St. Paul Road refuses to submit to arbitration in the matter, so the attempt to restore harmony on this class of business has been abandoned for the present.

S .- The entire roof, together with the inside walls and iron and stone colum the new south wing of the Capitol fell at 1.40 o'clock this afternoon, causing the death of four persons and injuring twenty others. These columns were oade of large pieces of boiler fron rolled into circu form, stovepipe fashion, the jointures not being boited
